

FRESNO POLICE DEPARTMENT

IS PROUD TO HOST "2023 CRITICAL LEGAL ISSUES
UPDATE: USE OF FORCE AND MORE"
WITH MISSY O'LINN

WEDNESDAY,
DECEMBER 13, 2023
9:00AM TO 5:00PM

People's Church
7172 N. Cedar Ave., Fresno, CA 93720

ATTORNEY MISSY O'LINN

The Fresno Police Department will host a FREE of charge 7 hour training seminar featuring Attorney Missy O'Linn, Equity Partner with Manning & Kass, Ellrod, Ramirez, Trester. Ms. O'Linn will discuss the innovative and revolutionary approaches to teaching law and policy to law enforcement personnel. She will also focus on principles and concepts of civil liability and allegations of police misconduct related to civil rights litigation in federal and state court.

Participants will receive an update on precedent setting cases and applicable legal standards. The discussion will focus on trends in use of force litigation, issues of quality and quantity of training, supervisory concerns, BWCs, media related issues, high-profile circumstances and other topical concerns for law enforcement personnel and agencies.

The program also includes risk-management action plan items and other novel training concepts such as: the Constitutional Law Crate, the Use of Force Equation, establishing a Custody and Care Timeline for potential ICDs and ARDs scenarios; and the CRISIS Communications Crate.

This event is open all active duty police, sheriff, district attorney and other law enforcement personnel. You must register to attend. The cost for attendance is FREE!

To register for this event, please contact Annette Adams by email at Annette.Adams@fresno.gov. Seating is limited so register early.