

Government Training Agency
Presents

Domestic Violence for Dispatchers

Domestic Violence for Dispatchers

This course is for dispatchers and supervisors who are responsible for the receipt of domestic violence calls, their management, and the dispatch of first responders. It provides up-to-date information to assist dispatchers in the safe and successful handling of domestic violence incidents. Instructors will also discuss protocols and issues specific to your area and jurisdiction.

Topics Covered:

- Common Beliefs and Myths about DV
- Impact on Children
- DV Dynamics – Power and Control
- Managing Cultural Issues and Language Barriers
- Legal Mandates and Court Orders
- Legal Concerns
- Significance of Strangulation
- Risk Factors and Lethality

NO TUITION, POST CERTIFIED Plan IV

CCN: 9070-30926-23-003

Travel reimbursement is available via Training Reimbursement Request (TRR)

from POST. Scholarship Travel

Reimbursement is available

Contact Alicia Shade at ashade@govtraining.com for details.

February 5, 2024

8:00am-5:00pm

Fresno, CA

Register Online Now!

https://www.govtraining.com/course/domestic-violence-for-dispatchers/

Or call the Government Training
Agency at (858) 550-0040