

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Professional Staff • Supervisors • Managers

POST Certified

Potential for Plan IV POST Reimbursement

Earn 20 POST Continued Professional Training (CPT) Credits

➤ Lead With Confidence

This 2½-day interactive course for professional staff supervisors provides leadership skills and approaches tailored specifically to women in law enforcement. Participants will explore innovative methods to become strong, authentic, and successful leaders while building the confidence and skills needed to advance their careers and positively influence their organizations.

➤ Lead With Authenticity

➤ Lead With Purpose

COURSE DETAILS

Dates: September 14–16, 2026 | Days: Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday (½ Day)

Tuition: $325.00 | Class Size: Limited to 25 Students

ABOUT JANET DAVIS

Janet Davis is a retired Chief of Police and Certified Leadership Coach. She developed this course from firsthand experience as a Chief of Police and Certified Leadership Coach, recognizing the need for leadership training that addresses the unique challenges and opportunities women face in law enforcement.

"Chief Davis conducted a very compelling course for Women in Leadership. This is one of the most helpful courses I have ever taken."

Sgt. Sherry V.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Develop a roadmap for your personal leadership goals.
- Grow your confidence and innate courage.
- Become more assertive in your communication.
- Identify your personal strengths and learn how to show up as your best self.
- Identify personal triggers and develop strategies to effectively manage them.

JANET DAVIS

LOCATION

Fresno Police Department
Regional Training Center
6375 W. Central Avenue
Fresno, CA 93706

REGISTRATION

Contact: Annette Adams
Email: Annette.Adams@fresno.gov
*Space is limited to 25 students.
Early registration is encouraged.*

Empowering Women to Lead, Influence, and Succeed in Law Enforcement

